Limited IRB Staff Availability on Monday, September 10th

Sep 7, 2018

Dear Colleagues,

In preparation for an upcoming new version of iRIS, IRB staff will be conducting office-wide testing on Monday, September 10th from 9 AM ? 3 PM. Response times to your phone calls and emails during this time will be delayed. This full system testing will help ensure a smooth rollout later this Fall.

Please note that the current version of iRIS will still be functional during this time, and you will be able to submit per usual. We will be sending out notifications of the rollout as the final details are determined.

Thank you for your patience.
