Limited IRB Staff Availability Today, March 25th

Mar 25, 2019

Dear Colleagues,

In preparation for an upcoming new version of iRIS, IRB staff will be conducting office-wide testing today, March 25th from 9 AM-2 PM. Response times to your phone calls and emails during this time will be delayed. This full system testing will help ensure a smooth roll out later this Spring.

Please note that the current version of iRIS will still be functional and you will be able to submit per usual. We will be sending out notifications of the rollout as the final details are determined.

Thank you for your patience.

Best,

UCSF IRB
